Spring Training & Legislative Update

June 1 - 2, 2017

Arrowwood Lodge at Brainerd Lakes
6967 Lake Forest Road, Baxter

Tentative Agenda

Thursday, June 1 – Professional Development Training Day

12:30 p.m. Registration

1:00 p.m. Professional Development Training Day Welcome and Introductions

Tim Nelson, Professional Development Committee Chair

Preparing Yourself for Dog Encounters/Dealing with and Responding to Difficult People

Canine Man Hector Hernandez, Speaker, Trainer & Author

Hector L. Hernandez is an Author, former law enforcement officer, speaker and police K-9 instructor. He has 30 years of experience training police dogs, which, combined with testing and training all breeds of dogs aggressive or not, has made him well rounded and recognized as the foremost authority in the United States for dog bite prevention. His training programs have been accredited by the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards, and he is an evaluator for the American Kennel Club's 'Canine Good Citizen' program. He served in the United States Marine Corps, receiving an Honorable Discharge in 1994. More information can be found at: <http://www.dogencounters.com/>

Additional training in “Dealing With and Responding to Difficult People” is a presentation teaching you strategies to use while dealing with difficult people at work or your everyday life. Without a plan, you will lead with emotions, which could set you up for failure and in some cases, risk your safety and possibly your job. “Dealing with Difficult People” teaches you how to plan to respond and exercise self-control in the most trying times. This presentation will teach you how not to take these encounters personally and will empower you with a variety of techniques.

5:00 p.m. Adjourn for the day
